PERSONAL.

For Daniel E. O'Sullivan we have only contempt. The Kentucky Irish American will continue in the future as in the past, just to all but fearing none. Threats of Federal grand juries or jails will not deter this paper or its editors from performing their duty and refuting attacks by him and his kind on men who are in every way their betters in both public and private life. To the thousands who have tendered their friendship and the Kentucky Irish American its sincere thanks, home of Mr. and Mrs. David Garvey, 2319 West Main street, coming via when the happy father has been having one long celebration. This is the eighth addition to Dave's ho-cedes no credit to Roosevelt. The christening will take place October 29, when there will be a jolly gathering of friends and relatives of the proud parents.

In the presence of many of their

SUCCESS

Crowns Efforts of Catholic Woman's Club
Bazar.

The Catholic Woman's Club bazar will close this evening, and from present indications a large sum will be raised and it is confidently expected enough to wipe out the entire debt. The public has been quick to respond to the call and the attendance at the bazar both afternoon and evening has been most gratifying to the managers and workers, every booth being most liberally patronized. One of the special features of the bazar has been the daily menus prepared under the direction of Manager Jacob Hubbuch, the crowd at the noonday meals being especially large, but there was plenty for everyone and the service was especially good. The menu for today's dinner will be quene olives, dill pickles, roast beef, Hirsch's sour kraut, mashed potatoes, stewed tomatoes, combination salad, mince and coffee, and the supper menu is as follows: Ham, beef croquettes, hash brown potatoes, sliced tomatoes, hot biscuits and coffee. There still remains a great many articles to be disposed of, and the banner crowd of the bazar is expected to be on hand this afternoon and tonight.

MOVES INTO NEW HOME.

Dr. Michael Casper, who recently purchased and remodeled the Ratter-man residence at 1939 West Broadway, moved into his new home last evening. For the past eleven years Dr.
Casper has been practicing his profession in Louisville and doing a great deal of surgery at Twelfth and Delaware. He will hold his former office, in order to be in touch with the numerous factories and railroads in that vicinity, by whom he is employed as surgeon. Besides doing a large practice Dr. Casper always finds time to aid our Catholic societies, of several of which he is an active member. His numerous friends wish him and his family success and luck in their new home.

EUCHRE, SOCIAL, CAKE SALE.

The ladies and gentlemen of St.
Ann's parish have made arrangements to give a euchre, social and cake sale at the school hall, Seventh and Davies avenue, next Thursday afternoon and evening, October 26, the proceeds to go to St. Ann's church. The social will begin in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and the euchre will be held at 7 and 8 o'clock. A load of coal heads the splendid list of euchre prizes for the evening game. There will be many fine cakes disposed of at the social, and somebody will get a $14 chiffonier for only ten cents. An appetizing lunch will be served by the ladies.
From this it will be seen a treat awaits all who attend.

TOWER TO BE REPAIRED.

A permit for the repair of the tower of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was granted the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, Bishop of the Louisville diocese, by Building Inspector Tilford last Wednesday afternoon. The work will cost about $1,500. For the past two years Rev. Father Rock has been making improvements in this imposing structure, and when completed it will not be surpassed by any in this section of the country.

EUCHRE AND LOTTO.

The ladies of St. Elizabeth's Society, of St. Joseph's church, will entertain with a euchre and lotto next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, October 24 and 25, in the school hall, Webster and Washington street.
The proceeds of the entertainment will be donated to the church and a large crowd is expected to be present and aid this charitable purpose.

WILL WORK.

Catholic Knights Plan Campaign of Local Parishes.

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America will begin earnest work next month with hopes for a large increase in membership. This was decided upon at the monthly meeting held on Friday night of last week, when stirring addresses were delivered by such well known Knights as Peter J. Dowling, Patrick Holley, John Schalda, Joseph P. McGinn and Capt. John Murphy and John Kinney, of Jeffersonville. The speakers advocated parish mass meetings, when the benefits derived from membership in the Catholic Knights would be made known to all. In addition it was suggested that a joint initiation for all the branches in the Falls Cities be held at an early date. This will be decided upon at the next meeting.
Owing to the absence of both the President and Vice President the meeting was called to order by Secretary Ben Kruse, when John Schalda and Patrick Holley were chosen to serve for the evening and the usual business transacted. Treasurer Charles Falk received returns for the recent outings of the committee, which requests all ticket holders to make their final report at the November meeting. The delegates were much surprised with the alterations and improvements in their hall, which is now one of the best in the city.

WALNUT THEATER.

Joseph R. Garry, who is prominent in Knights of Columbus circles, will visit Louisville the coming week, appearing at the Walnut-street Theater as Richard Brewster in "The Third Degree." Mr. Garry will be recalled

JOSEPH R. GARRY.

by many theater-goers as the Silas Lynch in "The Cavanaugh." Catholic circles will also be interested in two young women of "The Third Degree" company. Miss Sarah Padden, the star of the organization, is a devout member of the faith. She is a protege of Father Maurice J. Dorney, of Chicago, and obtained her education and start in life through the interest and assistance of that well known priest. Miss Adele Hughes, another member of the company, is the niece of Father Bernard Heenev, of Holy Angels' church, Chicago.
This is her first season on the stage as she recently graduated from the Academy of Our Lady at Longwood, Ill. "The Third Degree" will play the entire week at the Walnut-street playhouse, and at the first performance souvenir photographs of Miss Padden will be given to every lady in attendance. The company and production are the same that appeared at Macaulay's Theater last season, the present engagement in Louisville being the first that has been played at popular prices.

ANNIVERSARY.

The officers and members of St.
Patrick's Branch of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of their organization at Robinson Hall, Seventeenth and Main streets, on Wednesday night, November 8.
The arrangements for the celebration are in the hands of a committee composed of Messrs. Patrick Holley, James Coleman, Thomas Keenan,
Alexander Burke, Joseph Vetter,
John T. Riley, Mrs. Margaret Foley
and Misses Mary Sheridan and Mary Corcoran. They announce that the officers and members of the other branches are cordially invited to take part in the celebration, which will be made a most enjoyable and happy one.

INITIATION MONDAY NIGHT.

Division 4, A. O. H., will confer the degrees on a class of fourteen next Monday night, and President John H. Hennessy is keeping the degree team busy rehearsing its work. D. J.
Reilly and T. J. Langan have been appointed as a special entertainment committee to arrange for a musical programme and also furnish something for the inner man at the close of the initiatory exercises.

FORTY HOURS.

The Forty Hours' Adoration begins tomorrow morning at St. Helen's church on Eighteenth street, and at St. Edward's in Jeffersontown. The pastors and altar societies of both churches have made every preparation for these beautiful devotions, at which will be heard eloquent sermons by visiting priests who will assist the services, which will continue until Tuesday evening.

MUCH COAL.

Virginia's coal production is steadily increasing, the State's output of 6,597,997 short tons last year being far ahead of any previous record.

BARRY COUNCIL

Entertains Grand Chaplain and President of the Y. M. I.

Historic old Barry Council, Y. M.
I., of Lexington, held one of the largest and most eventful meetings of its career on Tuesday evening, Grand Chaplain George M. Connor, of Owensboro, and Grand President V.
K. Eckert, of Louisville, being the guests of the council. President J. B.
Gimnochio was in the chair and short addresses were delivered by Rev.
Fathers Liebert de Waegenaer and William Curry, of St. Paul church;
Rev. Fathers G. Wiserman and Henry Schulte, of St. Peter's church; John B. Shannon, James J. O'Brien and a short descriptive sketch of the Turkish-Italian war by Phil Mangione. A debate between P. J. Clark and Dan J. Crow on "Is Alcohol a Benefit or Curse to Mankind?"
proved very interesting. A communication was received from Rev. M.
R. Delaney, former Chaplain, regretting his inability to be present and hoped that they would all remember him in a toast, which was done. Four applications were received and the Financial Secretary reported the largest receipt of dues this year, which announcement was received with much enthusiasm. Bright prospects are in store for Barry Council.

DEATH CLAIMS BISHOP.

The Right Rev. Augustine Van de
Vyver, for the past twenty-two years Bishop of the Richmond diocese and a prominent figure in the American hierarchy, died early Monday morning in Richmond of complications resulting from a severe cold. Bishop Van de Vyver was a native of Belgium, being born in East Flanders sixty-seven years ago. He was an earnest worker, and though his disease was not large it was well provided with educational and charitable institutions, to which he gave special care. The See of Richmond was established in 1821 and has been presided over by some of the most noted of America's Catholic digni-taries, among them being Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop John J.
Keane. News of his death was everywhere received with expressions of profound regret. By his death Richmond and the church suffer a distinct loss.

WILL BE OUT SOON.

William Koster, the well known letter carrier, is recovering from a serious accident which has laid him up for four weeks. He was watching a baseball contest on the commons when a foul tip struck him on the ankle, causing a fracture, followed by a threatening attack of blood poison, which, however, has been averted, and he expects soon to be back on his mail route.

BALKED.

"You got a raise in pay, didn't you?"
"Yes, but it didn't do me any good."
"Why not?"
"I talk in my sleep, and my wife and out about it."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

Last Sunday 250 Knights received the fourth degree at Columbus, Ohio.

Buffalo Council was one of the first to assist the Austin sufferers, sending $1,000.

Frankfort Council members are cheered over prospects for the erection of a home for their use at the State capital.

Contracts have been let for the new building for the San Francisco Knights, which without ground will cost $136,000.

Over 10,000 men marched in serried ranks through the flag-decked streets of Providence in honor of the great Catholic sailor who discovered America.

St. Paul Knights celebrated Discovery day by conferring the highest degree on a class of ninety, followed by a banquet at which there were 300 guests.

An interesting feature of the Columbus day celebration at Erie was the unveiling of the Columbus statue presented the local council by the Friedrichs brothers.

Two companies of United States troops and their bands from Fort Logan, the Colorado National Guard and artillery and five other divisions made a great display in the Columbus parade at Denver.

SOMEWHAT IMPROVED.

Right Rev. Patrick A. Ludden, Bishop of Syracuse, is still confined to his bed, but the attendants note a gradual improvement in his condition and now have hopes that he will be up and about very soon.

ALTAR AND ALB LACES.

Those who are interested are invited to visit the Charles A. Rogers Book Company store and inspect their new line of altar and alb laces, just imported from France and the finest ever exhibited in Kentucky.
They show the work of the French peasants, which is wonderful as well as artistic. Also on exhibition are some most beautiful specimens of gold hand work and vestments, as well as religious articles that all Catholics should have.

ENVOYS

Have Met With a Cordial Reception in the Far West.

After nearly a year of continuous labor, beginning in the East and traveling westward, preaching and explaining the doctrine of Irish Ireland as they went along, the Gaelic envoys, Rev. Michael O'Flanagan and Fionan McColum, have at last rested their eyes on the far-off Pacific Ocean. They this month reached the city of Los Angeles, where the Rev. Eugene O'Growney, one of Erin's noblest sons, died a martyr to the Gaelic cause. Every-where they went their message was enthusiastically received, and their plea for the restoration of the Gaelic tongue, the grandest and noblest heritage of the Irish race, was listened to with keen interest. The success of their mission is not due alone to the way in which Fionan McColum delivered his message in his native tongue, nor to the eloquent manner in which Father O'Flanagan made his plea. It is due to a far greater extent to the importance and the worthiness of the great cause they advocate. The envoys will most likely visit a number of Southern cities when making their return trip, and it is expected Louisville will be among the number, as Father O'Flanagan was here some years ago and is known to many of our citizens.

FIGHT OPENS.

Redmond's Speeches Received With Favor By All Classes.

Reviewing the affairs of Europe T. P. O'Connor cables that the week ends in tumult and all round uncertainty. In English politics, he says, the home rule campaign and the campaign for or against Lloyd-George's insurance bill now are in full swing. Redmond's moderate speeches are reported fully in the papers of all shade and are producing an excellent effect, especially in contrast with Carson's blood-curdling appeals to rebellion in Ulster. The Tories are digging up every speech made by every Irish leader, including Parnell, whether in Ireland or America, to justify the old bogey of separatism, but the indications are that it will be impossible for anybody to revive the old passions, old war cries and old bogies. Lloyd-George's bill, he thinks, will go through after all, though the labor unrest, which still causes much anxiety, further exasperated the Tory opinion against him as the author of the present war of classes by his Limehouse speech. Ramsey MacDonald, leader of the Labor party, publicly disowned Koir Hardie and the other Laborites who denounce the bill.

REAL PART

Bible Plays in the Services of the Catholic Church.

Misinformation people often say that the Bible plays a very unimportant part in the services of the Catholic church. Evidently they are ignorant of the fact that the mass begins with a Psalm; the Introit is generally a passage of Scripture; the Gloria in Excelsis is a Bible passage swelling into the grandest sublimity of prayer. The gospel of the day is taken from one of the four evangelists; the epistle is a selection from some other part of Scripture. The offertory is from the Bible. The lavabo is another of the Psalms; the words of consecration are taken from the gospels; the Our Father is from the Bible, and the service closes with the opening of the gospel of St. John. From beginning to end the mass is a Scriptural service. The vespers is a series of Psalms. The breviary, containing the daily office of the priest, is mainly composed of Psalms and other extracts from Scripture. There is not an office of the church for the living or dead which does not contain large extracts from the Bible.

BREATHE DEEPLY.

A simple way to get warm after exposure to cold is to take a long breath with the mouth firmly shut. Repeat this several times until you begin to feel the heat returning. It requires a very short time to do this. The long breath quickens the pulse and thus causes the blood to circulate faster. The blood flows into all parts of the veins and arteries and gives out a great deal of heat. It is stated that this method of deep breathing prevents colds and a great many other ailments if begun in time.

BOYS WHO OBEY.

Show us a boy who obeys his parents, who has respect for age, who always has a friendly disposition and who applies himself diligently to get wisdom and to do good toward others, and if he is not respected and beloved, then there is no such thing as truth in the world. Remember this, boys, and you will be respected by others, and grow up and become useful men.

CLEAN RUGS.

To clean your rugs put them upside down on bed springs laid down out in the yard. Beat them thoroughly, then turn them over and sweep. This saves the dirt from the ground getting into the rugs.

KIDS THE RATS.

Get pieces of unslaked lime and scatter about the places they come from and by running over it they feel get burned and they run away and never come again and do not lie about the place dead.

FIFTY YEARS.

Baltimore Cathedral Scene of Most Impressive Jubilee Services.

This Country and Foreign Lands
Pay Homage to Cardinal
Gibbons.

Was Much Affected by Friendship Manifested For Him.

A MAN OF APOSTOLIC ZEAL

In the Cathedral at Baltimore, where fifty years ago he was ordained a priest, then successively consecrated a Bishop, invested with the pallium of an Archbishop, and twenty-five years after his ordination received the red biretta of a Cardinal, James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, last Sunday received homage from illustrious prelates and laymen from all parts of this country and foreign lands. The ecclesiastical celebration of the Cardinal's dual jubilee began Sunday morning with Pontifical high mass, celebrated by the Cardinal, with the Rev. Dr. William A. Fletcher, rector of the Cathedral, as deacon, and the Rev. P. C. Gavan, the Chancellor of the archdiocese, as sub-deacon. Archbishop John J. Glennon, of St. Louis, delivered the sermon, which was an eloquent tribute to the head of the American church. In the course of his remarks the Archbishop turned to the subject of education, expounding the Catholic idea of the question. He held that the aim of education is the acquisition of truth, as opposed to the view of others that it is merely the obtaining of knowledge. "The church, also being a teaching church," said Archbishop Glennon on this point, "is vitally interested in the matter of education and educational movements. On general terms therefore it is in accord with the spirit of the age."

The music was chiefly Gregorian, though there were intervals of figured music, and orchestral instruments were employed in the choir, relieving the otherwise somber color of the harmonies. In the procession, which for impressiveness probably never has been surpassed in this country, were nine of America's twelve Archbishops and about thirty Bishops. Included among the Archbishops were Diomedeo Falconio, the Apostolic Delegate, and Paul Bruchesi, of Montreal. Among the Bishops was Hugh McSherry, of South Africa. Following the mass dinner was served the visiting clergy at St. Mary's Seminary. In response to a toast proposed for Pope Plus, Archbishop Falconio, the Papal Delegate, said that up to the time of the present Pontiff's election "society at large was distracted by a spirit of innovation and unwholesome liberty; that a vastly extended and most dangerous organization of modernistic ideas was undermining the most fundamental truths of the Christian religion, and that problems of the church and of society were awaiting a speedy solution. There was required then," said the Archbishop, "a man of apostolic zeal, a man coming from the ranks of the people, who could fully understand their wants and direct the movements of the advancing democracy; a man of Christian courage and of stern determination, able to protect the rights of the church and religious liberty against irreligious legislation and atheism. And God provided the church with such a providential man in the person of Plus X., whose energetic action in the administration of the church has been so beneficial to religion."

The Papal Delegate thanked the American Catholics for their "well known loyalty to the Holy See," and offered to Cardinal Gibbons his felicitations on the occasion of his twofold jubilee, giving him high praise for his "glorious career."

Archbishop John M. Farley, of New York, in lauding the Cardinal for what he had accomplished for the Catholic faith in America, expressed the hope that eventually he would be seated upon the throne of the Vatican.

In response to a toast to the President of the United States, Archbishop John Ireland, of St. Paul, said President Taft had not discriminated against Catholics, and that while he had given them no more than their due, they were grateful to him.

The Cardinal, rising at the end of the dinner, said the prejudices which formerly existed against Catholicism in this country were almost exterminated. He charged the Bishops and Archbishops around him with the command to garner by the end of another fifty years 100,000,000 souls for the Catholic church in this country.

A pleasing feature of the banquet was the presentation of the degree of Doctor of Theology from Louvain University in Belgium, made by Right Rev. Bishop Maes, of Covington. There is connected with this famous educational institution an American college founded by Archbishop Spalding, one of Cardinal Gibbons' predecessors. The Cardinal in his response recalled many events in his life and said he saw only a few about him who were with him in his early days. He was much affected by the show of affection made by Bishop Maes in his remarks.

GREAT JUDGE

Country Mourns the Death of John Marshall
Harlan.

One common note of sorrow sounded Saturday throughout the country over the death of John Marshall Harlan, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Kentucky's most distinguished son. His splendid mind, his great courage, his rugged candor, his virile combativeness combined to make him in the public estimation the commanding figure on the bench which he had adorned for thirty-four years lacking a month and a half. Chief Justice Marshall and Justice Field were the only members of that tribunal who saw longer service. He towered intellectually as he towered physically. No man was more independent, no man more outspoken. His individual opinions in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco case, in which he contended that the court should not legislate the word "reasonable" as to restraints of trade into the Sherman Anti-Trust law, will live in judicial annals as long as the country will endure. As the critic of Presidents he was at his best, and many a caution given by him in his formal addresses and after-dinner speeches was heeded by the Chief Magistrates of the country.

WOMAN.

Father Bernard Vaughan's
Views on Suffrage
Question.

Father Bernard Vaughan, S. J., the great English apostle of the poor and enemy of social shams, is in this country for a visit to last until next spring. He will visit many cities and it is to be hoped that Louisville will be thus honored. Father Vaughan, who has expressed his views on England's smart set and a good many other subjects, does not want to be listed as an advocate of the "new woman." As to woman suffrage his objection is not to women voting but to other things that might follow. A woman may be all right in matching ribbons and looking after details, but she is not mentally fitted to grasp and solve the problems of the day. She should not hold office, he thinks. A woman in office might do well enough in dealing with side issues of minor importance, but could she grasp and deal with great issues? Father Vaughan doubts that she could. There have been a few exceptional women, but the ordinary woman is the weaker vessel and not suited to masculine roles.

LATEST IN STYLES.

Two toned veils are very smart; so also are striped veils with plain borders.

We are most assuredly to retain the slim, clinging draperies of the first empire.

Flounces are again in fashion for walking skirts of heavy fabrics, but they are without fullness.

In the tailor made waists the trimming is severe and consists mostly in mere bands and simple straps.

Side plaited ribbons, generally with colored edges, are a new and popular trimming on dresses and sometimes on hats.

Toques and turbans in two colors are smart and may be of all cloth or felt, or combined with velvet or heavy ribbed silk.

The fichu drapery of the bodice is being used for evening and even for afternoon wear, with the V shaped opening at the back.

Fichus are seen in every possible soft material, from chiffon to handkerchief lawn, from wash net to embroidered or allover lace.

There is a new version of the kimono waist, which is draped in soft folds so that there seems to be no break between bodice and sleeve.

Draped effects appear in turbans, and toques and small hats galore. These are the most attractive in the long haired cloth and ribbed silk.

NEEDLE THE THREAD.

"If anyone tells you there is nothing new under the sun," remarked a well dressed woman to her friend, "don't you believe it. I have just come from a sewing class, and what do you think the teacher asked me as she explained things?"

"Can't you imagine," answered the friend.

"She said: 'Do you thread your needle or needle your thread?'"

"What a funny question! What is the difference?" demanded the friend.

"Just try it," promptly responded the other. "Threading the needle is all wrong. Just take the needle in the right hand and needle your thread, and see how much easier it is. I only wish I had known it twenty years ago."

GOOD APPLE CAKE.

One pint flour, one-half teaspoonful baking powder, one-half teaspoonful salt, mixed and sifted; rub in two tablespoonfuls of butter, add one beaten egg, and mix to make thick batter. Spread one inch deep in greased shallow tin. Have ready several pared, cored and quartered apples. Press points into dough, sprinkle thickly with sugar mixed with little cinnamon. Bake in hot oven.

GOOD QUINCE JELLY.

Take half a peck of quince, wash and cut in quarters and add enough water to cover even, boil till soft, then put in bag and let drain all night. Add a cupful of sugar to every cup of juice. Boil until a little on saucer thickens. You can do the same with grapes, crab apples and skins of peaches and pears. Do not add water when making grape jelly.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General News Notes.

Strong effort is being made to increase the membership in Nashville. The 168 auxiliaries in Massachusetts have a membership of over 13,000.

The Hibernian Knights were prominent in the Discovery day parade at Denver.

During the past six months three new divisions were organized in Massachusetts.

Division 1 of Anaconda voted $50 to fund the envoys are raising for the Gaelic League in Ireland.

State President Brown is visiting and encouraging all the divisions in Central and Western New York.

A new ladies' auxiliary with a membership of over fifty was instituted this month at Waltham, Mass.

The new division instituted at Medfield, Mass., conferred the honor degree on thirty-five candidates last Sunday.

Boston Hibernians will put all their energy into the coming St. Patrick's day parade, which is expected to be the best yet held.

John J. Killeen, just elected, is the first Irish Catholic City Judge Nashville ever had. He is a member of the Ancient Order.

The Irishmen of Dougherty, Iowa, are enthusiastic over the division organized there, which has prospects for a membership of 200.

National President Regan will attend the Cleveland diamond jubilee celebration and big county initiation to be held early in December.

The appeal of the National Board for contributions for the Cardinal Gibbons' Memorial Building should meet with a generous response.

Division 4 of Minneapolis celebrated the diamond jubilee of the order last week. The treasury contains $2,500, with no debts or liabilities.

Ladies' Auxiliary 9 of Buffalo devoted its last meeting to a feast of Irish song and story and a jig competition, which was awarded to Mrs. O'Brien.

The auxiliary making the greatest percentage increase in membership in Connecticut from September 1 to January 1 will be awarded a silk banner by the State Board.

Though unable to complete her semi-annual report, the National Secretary of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. Adella Christy, states the membership is now nearly 60,000.

But two more months remain of the diamond jubilee year. Let it not be said of any member that he has not helped increase our number, or it is not yet too late for each to secure at least one candidate.

Editor Patrick J. Haltigan will deliver his famous lecture tomorrow at the diamond jubilee celebration of the division at Olean, N. Y. He will also witness the big initiation at Buffalo on Monday night.

GOING AHEAD.

Mackin Council Considering Educational Question.

Mackin Council is keeping abreast of the times, as was apparent at the meeting Monday night, when matters of public concern were considered at some length. President Robertson occupied the chair and announced that Dr. A. R. Bizot would address the council next Monday night. An eloquent and forceful speaker and greatly interested in the young men, Dr. Bizot is assured of a good audience. The delegates to the Catholic Federation spoke in praise of the work of that body, and asked that liberal support be given it in its arrangements for entertaining the national convention next year. Joseph Gathof, Joe Miller, Conrad Schaefer and Joseph Schuler, who are on the sick list, were reported on the road to recovery. Three applications were received, making six this month, and therefore it was decided to have an initiation on the second Sunday in November. The proposition to establish a commercial night class was discussed by nearly all present, but final action was postponed till next Wednesday night, when a special meeting will be held and all interested given an opportunity to be heard. Notices were ordered sent out requesting the presence of every member.

MOTION PICTURES.

The Casino and Orpheum motion picture offerings continue to meet with public approval and are viewed by almost continuous crowded houses. From their opening the Princess Company has seen to it that no objectionable pictures were exhibited, and hence the popularity of these two houses. For next week the very latest films have been secured, and the daily change will bring a variety that will be hailed with delight.

BUSINESS REMOVAL.

The T. W. Tarpy Cigar Company has removed its office and factory from 906 West Market to 122 South Seventh street. The change was made because of the increased business and the necessity for larger quarters. Mr. Tarpy, who is a well known traveling man and prominent in many local fraternal societies, engaged in the manufacture of cigars several years ago and has met with remarkable success, two of his brands, the Lady Dash and Little Consulted the Best Doctors. Sept. 7, 1910. For seven years I had nearly every day an attack of Epilepsy and Hysteria. I consulted the best doctors in the City of New York, who tried everything, but without result. At last I gave Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic a trial, and before finishing the first bottle I was feeling well, because the fits disappeared. I am very thankful and have confidence in the Tonic. Mr. Martin Hottnak, Cataldo, Idaho, wasn't able to sleep more than one hour in a night, for three years he was troubled with Fever, tearing pains in the sides. He used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and since then his sleep increased to 5 and 6 hours. Besides he is very much pleased with the effect of the remedy.

A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1870, and now by the Koenig Med. Co., Chicago, Ill. 108 Lake Street. Sold by Drugists at 25c per Bottle, 5 for $5. Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9.

A. J., having a big demand everywhere.

SHUBERT MASONIC.

"The Fatted Calf," an optimistic comedy, comes to the Shubert for the first half of next week. This opera was recently produced with great success, and the same remarkable cast will interpret the play here. For the last half Manager Garrity announces an augmented star revival of "Pinafore." It will be presented with identically the same cast as was seen at the Casino Theater, New York City, all of last summer, which includes Fay Templeton, De Wolf Hopper, Eugene Cowles, Violet Gillette, Edith Decker, George McFarlane, R. E. Graham, Arthur Aldridge and Alice Brady.

FRIENDS ARE INVITED.

The ladies of the Holy Name parish invite their friends to a euchre party to be held next Tuesday night in the church hall at Fourth and O streets. Play will begin at 8 o'clock and many handsome prizes will be awarded. The proceeds will be devoted to worthy purposes, and as an enjoyable evening is assured the ladies look for a large gathering.

the Recent Events Culled

The late William Brown, of Portaferry, left personal estate valued at $61,000.

Only three minor cases were before the Dundalk Petty Sessions. Fine record for three months.

Dr. M. D. Staunton, Acting Medical Officer of Swinford Dispensary district, was at the meeting of Swinford Guardians elected Medical Officer of the district.

The Castleberg Guardians have accepted the resignations of John S. Nesbitt, master, after fifty-four years' service; and of Miss Gregory, matron, who held her post for forty-three years.

At a recent meeting of the Carlow Urban Council a communication was received from the Local Government Board sanctioning a loan of $12,500 for the waterworks improvement scheme.

Dr. Michael J. Dolan, Drumkeerin, was unanimously elected Medical Officer of Health for the Lurganboy Dispensary at a meeting of the Manorhamilton Guardians and District Council.

The Very Rev. Dr. D'Alton has been given the pastoral charge of Ballinrobe and raised to the dignity of Vicar-Forane and Canon of the Cathedral Chapter by His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Healy.

Although not unexpected the death of Thomas Bannigan at Ballytrain cast a deep gloom throughout the county. He was a regular contributor to the Dundalk Democrat and was known locally as the "Bar of Ballytrain."

An old age pensioner, Mary Flynn, of Ballyvannell, County Wexford, met her death under tragic circumstances. She left her house in a donkey car to visit her daughter, and half an hour afterward was discovered penned beneath the vehicle.

Recently fire broke out in houses occupied by John Taylor and Michael McGrath, Aughnacloy. The flames spread rapidly and four dwelling houses adjoining were also completely burned down. The residents had time to escape, but a considerable quantity of furniture was destroyed.

A short time ago a small factory was established in the town of Monaghan for the manufacture of women's waists and blouses. A modern plant was secured and sixty machines were installed. So successful has the enterprise proved that there are at present 150 machines in operation.

The entire number marching in procession at the unveiling of the Parnell monument must have exceeded 200,000, and its size may be gauged from the fact that John Redmond had concluded his speech and unveiled the memorial before many of the rear divisions reached O'Connell Bridge.

The apple crop in County Waterford is unusually good, and in size and quality the apples are far above the average of any year within the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

A youth named Hehir was killed in Limerick by a fall from a tree, from which he was collecting chestnuts. At a meeting of the Birr Board of Guardians Malach Fitzgerald was appointed Infirmary Attendant.

REAL VETS

Will Attend Diamond Jubilee For Home-Coming Event.

Intense interest is being manifested on all sides in the diamond jubilee bazaar of St. Boniface parish, which takes place next month. The many committees are meeting with encouragement and now feel assured that the bazaar will be successful from every point of view. Many quaint recollections hover around St. Boniface church, which was dedicated in 1837, and these are now being revived. The older parishioners remember that in 1848, during the Mexican war, Capt. Jacob Pfalzer, a member of the then small congregation, organized a company of infantry and went to the seat of war, remaining until peace was declared. There are still living a few veterans of that war who are members of St. Boniface parish, and special efforts will be made to have them present at the "home coming event" of the jubilee, which has been set for Thursday, November 23. A special programme will be presented every night of the bazaar, which will continue for a week.

HOPKINS' THEATER.

Hopkins' Theater patrons are promised another great vaudeville bill next week, with melody, mirth and comedy features not seen here this year. There are six numbers on the programme, each one of the high type that has won success for this popular people's amusement house. The latest features of motion photography will complete a bill of exceptional merit.

AVENUE THEATER.

The offering for next week at the Avenue Theater will be the "Cowboy and the Thief," a thrilling drama that will be presented by a company giving a true picture of Western life. For this production a large amount of scenery is carried and the stage setting is a feature of the show.
